

LANDSLIDE FOR TAFT.

President Tabulates States.

Executive's Figures Give the Secretary Over Five Hundred Votes.

Belief That He Will Be Named on Initial Ballot Is Strengthened.

Politicians in Washington Are Now Predicting Sweeping Victory.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A Taft landslide is what politicians in Washington now are predicting. President Roosevelt's belief that Judge Taft would be nominated on the first ballot at Chicago, announced semi-authoritatively several weeks ago, has not been shaken since the first statement to that effect.

Recent developments have strengthened the first ballot conviction. Within a few days the Taft forces have been doing some figuring on the basis of results already achieved in several States, and all their tabulations give the Secretary of War many more than enough votes to nominate on the "initial" and "only" call.

One of the tables in existence, it was stated today, in a quarter intimately connected with both Secretary Taft and the White House, is the production of President Roosevelt himself. Like many of lesser prominence, the President's assistants like to get out his pencil and make figures. The table which was declared to represent the opinion of the President, puts Taft way across the 500 mark. It requires 481 to nominate.

According to the table in question, the following States will vote practically solid for Taft when the first call of the roll is made:

Ohio	46
Michigan	42
Minnesota	22
Iowa	20
Missouri	20
Kansas	20
Nevada	6
North Dakota	16
South Dakota	8
Montana	6
Colorado	10
Washington	10
Oregon	8
Utah	8
California	20
Oklahoma	14
Wyoming	6
Tennessee	24
Virginia	24
Arkansas	24
Florida	10
Alabama	22
Louisiana	18
Texas	24
Idaho	6
Total	478

The following States are reckoned as giving about half and half for Taft and some other candidate:

Georgia	18
South Carolina	18
Mississippi	20
Kentucky	28
Delaware	6
New Hampshire	8
Maine	8
Massachusetts	18
Connecticut	18
Rhode Island	18
Massachusetts	18
Territorial votes, and these are counted practically solid for Taft. It also is set forth that Taft will have most of the sixteen votes of New Jersey, the sixteen of Maryland and the fourteen of West Virginia. It is admitted by the Taft forces that Gov. Hughes may get the eight votes of Vermont, and that he may divide the twelve votes of Maine and the eight votes of Rhode Island, but it is not conceded. But supplementary to the table of reputed executive construction, a close friend of the Secretary of War, who exhibited the table in question, declared that Judge Taft would be the second choice of the seventy-eight delegates from New York, one-half of the fifty-four votes of Indiana, one-fourth of the thirty votes of Pennsylvania. Evening, too, it was declared, if more than one ballot was required, the twenty-six votes of Wisconsin would go to Taft, but if the first ballot holds good, the only thing for the favorite folk to do, of course, is to make it unanimous.

BIG FLEET READY TO START FOR MAGDALENA BAY TODAY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LIMA (Peru) Feb. 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The fleet which is to accompany the American battleship fleet was a very joyful affair. The guests included a number of officials and prominent representatives of the Peruvian press.

Señor Polo warmly welcomed the correspondents and said he hoped they were pleased with their visit to Peru. A report was read detailing the real condition and the resources of the country.

Franklin Matthews, the correspondent of the Los Angeles Times, replied to the speech of welcome. He expressed the thanks of the correspondents for the many courtesies extended to them, and in well-chosen words dwelt upon the ties of friendship binding the United States and Peru. His speech was interspersed with humorous remarks and it was most heartily applauded.

A brilliant reception was held this evening on the flagship Connecticut. All the prominent officials of the capital and the leaders of society attended. The fleet is ready for its departure tomorrow for Magdalena Bay. Peruvians of all classes will see it leave with regret.

Not a single incident has occurred during its stay here to mar the enthusiasm with which it was received. The behavior of the men while ashore has been the subject of commendation by everybody.

WILL MAKE LONG TRIP.

American Minister to China to Travel 1500 Miles by River to Visit Viceroy.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—W. W. Rockhill, American Minister to China, will visit the Viceroy of Nan Kín and Han Kow, China, in April, aboard an American man-of-war which will be escorted by one or more American warships. The journey involves the navigation of the Yang-Tze-Kiang River, a distance of some 1500 miles.

The dispatches from Manila, stating that orders had been sent to the American fleet there to prepare for extended sea duty, is believed to be explained by the information that Mr. Rockhill is to make the trip.

MURDERED DENVER PRIEST AND HIS ASSASSIN.

Father Heinrichs.

HEARST NEWSPAPERS BLAMED FOR CRIME.

Official Catholic Organ Declares Same Influence That Inspired McKinley's Murder Led to the Denver Priest's Assassination at Altar.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The New World, the official organ of the Roman Catholic Church of the archdiocese, will devote a very large portion of its issue tomorrow to news and comment on the tragedy at Denver. In its editorial comment it will say, in part, that the murder of Father Heinrichs was inspired by the same motives, incited by the same wild tirades against established society, that prompted the assassination of President McKinley. The assassin in each case was a deluded, weak-minded degenerate, who had been maddened into the commission of crime by hearing the passionate, intemperate utterances and reading the criminally suggestive literature of gentlemen anarchists who, too cowardly to carry out in person their diabolical plots against society, play upon the ignorance and the criminal instincts of their unfortunate victims, until they have goaded them to bloody acts of violence such as that which has just been recorded.

MORAL ASSASSIN TO BLAME.

"The anarchist is as much a victim as he whom he murders. Before God he is responsible for the crime rests with the moral assassin who from the safety of the platform or the editor's desk arms the hands of our modern Cain.

"The nation owes it to itself as well as to the martyred priest of Denver to exterminate the cowardly propagandists of anarchy, who have dedicated themselves to the task of making murderers for the prosecution of their unholy principles.

"Giuseppe Alo is an Italian. That signifies nothing. The Italian people in Chicago, as well as elsewhere, are in the mass a law-abiding and deeply religious people. They are devout members of the church and loyal citizens of the State. The nationality of the assassin constitutes no reflection whatever upon the Italians. But among them are to be found centers of evil-minded and foul-hearted men who are banded together for the purpose of disseminating principles that make for social and religious unrest and that seldom good unfortunates like Alo to terrible crimes. It is against societies of this kind that the city, the State and nation must protect themselves and their citizens.

DENOUNCES CHICAGO CLUB.

"We do not hesitate to put the Giordano Bruno Club of Chicago in this category as a menace to public welfare, as an evil thing that the city police would do well to kill. It has been established here by a paid official of the Free Thought Club of Rome, the society which last year celebrated the anniversary of the Haymarket riots by disgraceful orgies upon the streets of Rome and brutal insults to the priesthood of that city.

"The city papers, with one notable exception, have taken the same view of this Italian club and have branded it as a menace to social as well as to religious order in the city. The one exception, as might be expected, is the American. The policy of the Giordano Bruno Club is the same as that which the Hearst newspapers have pursued ever since their establishment—a policy of envy, greed, of intolerance toward stable government, of class hatred.

"The Chicago American sympathizes with the Giordano Bruno Club as perfectly innocent of any attempt to do wrong, notwithstanding the villainous nature of its platform.

IN CASE OF MCKINLEY.

"Why not? Did not the Hearst papers commend the murder of McKinley in 1901 as a consummation devoutly to be wished for? Did they not write of the most lovable President that ever entered the White House, 'McKinley, bar one girly, Princeton person, who came to be no more nor less than a living, breathing crime in the eyes of the nation? Did they not hate and create on this hemisphere His name is hoisted, his figure burned in effigy.'

"And this in April, 1901: 'Institutions, like men, will last until they die. If bad institutions and bad men can be got rid of only by killing, then killing must be done.'

"And this in June, 1901: 'There has been much assassination in the world, from the assassination of some old rulers who needed assassination to heart; a newspaper like the American, driven to steal by hunger, were caught and hanged most legally.'

"The Chicago American has declared itself. Once more, for the benefit of its thousands of Catholic readers, who we hope, will take this lesson to heart: That a newspaper like the American is a blight and a source of untold harm in the Catholic home."

SIX ACCOMPLISHES ARE ARRESTED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.) DENVER (Colo.) Feb. 28.—Chief of Police Michael Delaney said this afternoon that a letter written by Giuseppe Alo to his son, found in the cell occupied by him while in jail in Colorado Springs, contained proof that men in six cities in the United States were connected with him in the killing of Father Leo.

Explosion in La Rosita Mine, Near Sabinas, Mex., Worse Than at First Supposed.

MONTERREY (Mex.) Feb. 28.—A special dispatch from Mexico says: Details of the explosion in the La Rosita mine near San Juan de Sabinas, mention of which was made in yesterday's dispatches, were received today, and indicate that the explosion was more disastrous than at first believed.

Seventy-six men were killed by the explosion, which occurred a few minutes before 6 o'clock in the morning, just as preparations were being made to charge the shaft.

The disaster took place in what was known as Shaft No. 2, in which most of the laborers were Japanese. It is not yet definitely known what caused the explosion, but fire damp is believed to have been responsible.

LONG TRIP; SHORT TALK.

Charles M. Schwab Goes to Europe and Back for Thirty-Minute Interview.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Five thousand and five hundred miles for a thirty-minute interview is the record made by Charles M. Schwab, the steel magnate, who arrived today on the Mauretania from Europe. He was away twenty days, and said he could have arrived sooner, but that he wished to wait for the big ship. The nature of the interview he went so far to obtain Mr. Schwab declined to tell.

After announcing that there was a feeling of apprehensiveness in the English financial situation, which he regarded as a reflection from this side of the water, he turned to the Morse situation, and said:

"Why don't they give Charles Morse a chance? He will get himself out of his financial difficulties if they will give him a chance. Why, he owes me money, and a bunch of it, as I have said before, but I am not worrying. I want to see him have a decent chance."

WANTED HIS WIFE TO DRINK.

BUT IT WAS GINGER ALE AND NOT CHAMPAGNE.

She Preferred the Latter, as Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Brokaw, Married Only Five Months, Are Reported to Have Separated. Although the Husband Makes Denial.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The separation of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Brokaw, a young couple who were married in this city, was reported to have occurred this afternoon, after their first wedding.

Brokaw, through his attorney, denies that there is a separation. Mrs. Brokaw was Mary Morris Blair, a daughter of Joseph A. Blair, a broker of this city. She was married to Mr. Brokaw September 17, 1907, at the Blair country home in Chittenango, N. Y.

The couple parted a few days ago at Mr. Brokaw's country estate, Fairview, High Point, N. C., in "the land of the sky." They came north separately. Mr. Brokaw, it is supposed, being in this city, and his wife at the home of her father, in Chittenango.

A dispatch from Asheville announces that Mr. Brokaw appeared at Greenboro last Tuesday in a highly excited condition, and took the through train for New York. Mrs. Brokaw started for New York on the next train.

Following the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Brokaw, most of the servants at Fairview started for New York. Those who lived in the vicinity went to their homes, and from their gossip it was gathered that the honeymoon of the millionaire and his wife was a stormy period. According to stories by servants, the climax came when Mr. Brokaw insisted that Mrs. Brokaw should drink ginger ale instead of champagne.

HORRIBLE THE THOUGHT.

Great Grandson of First John Jacob Astor Indignantly Denies Story of Engagement.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) "Please say for me there is absolutely no truth in the rumor of my engagement."

Matthew Astor Wilks, great grandson of the first John Jacob Astor, made the above statement this morning in answer to the report that he is to marry Sylvia Green, daughter of Henry Green.

Mr. Wilks lives at No. 440 Madison avenue, and his indignation over the report was so great that he canceled a dinner engagement at the Union Club last night.

The report of Mr. Wilks's engagement to Miss Green came as a great surprise to the 400, since his devotion to the gaieties of society life was generally supposed to preclude the possibility of his settling down to married life. Then, too, Mrs. Green is not in favor of the "butterfly" habits of the fashionable set and Mr. Wilks is not the sort of man, it was thought, that she would pick for a son-in-law.

BRADLEY ELECTED.

Republican Wins in Kentucky.

Wildest Excitement Attended Breaking of Deadlock in Legislature.

Four Anti-Beckham Democrats Break Away from Party's Shackles.

Effort Is Made to Turn Support to Other Candidates.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
FRANKFORT (Ky.) Feb. 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) William O'Connell, Republican, was today elected United States Senator to serve six years from March 3, 1909.

The voting was marked by scenes of the wildest excitement. The ball was the twenty-ninth taken in an effort to break the deadlock which had enveloped months ago between the Republican and Bradley forces.

The break came when the senatorial Charles was called. He had been voting for Democrats since the beginning of the fight, and when he answered "For W. O. Bradley," a shout of approval rang out from all sides.

When Senator Bradley, in his turn, cast his vote for Bradley, it was that apparent Beckham was out of the race. When Representative Lillard cast his vote for Bradley the Democrats became restless, and when Mr. Lillard cast his ballot the Beckham forces were in a rout.

FOUR ARE OBSTACLES.

The four leading Democrats were surrounded by the Republican forces and tried to persuade them to support Brad and vote for Lillard, but they refused to do so.

The Democrats leaders promised a caucus to select a candidate, which the name of Beckham would not be presented, but the recalcitrants refused all offers and the result could not be changed.

Representative Lillard was the only one of the Democrats to explain his vote for Bradley. He said he thought the time had come to throw off the party shackles and to break up the machine, and although he did support the Democratic ticket for forty years he believed his vote for Bradley was the best Democratic vote he ever cast.

BECKHAM FIGHTS HARD.

The vote followed an exhaustive joint sitting of the General Assembly. It had been held from the beginning of the contest, that a majority of a quorum was sufficient for an election, and with 128 members present today it required sixty-four votes to elect.

The votes of the four Democrats who have steadily refused to vote for former Gov. Beckham were transferred from the Republican Democrats on whom they had sought to induce their party assistants to unite, to the Republican caucus nominee, and his election promptly followed.

The many changes of votes made the recapitulation a very slow process. It also developed an additional vote, but the vote for Bradley remained unchanged, still being a majority of all members present and voting.

There was some further delay in the announcement, but the Speaker finally announced that Bradley had received a majority of the votes, and was elected.

BRADLEY'S CAREER.

Three of the four Democrats who voted for Bradley are from Louisville. While the excitement was in height, former Gov. Beckham came on the floor of the House chamber and released the Democrats from their primary nomination pledge.

Many of the Democrats jumped to their feet and sought to change their votes, the majority going to Congressman Ollie James.

The announcement that Bradley had been elected Senator was made after nearly all the Democrats had changed their votes. The four who voted for Bradley resisted the strongest appeals from the leaders of all their party factions.

Senator-elect Bradley has been many times honored by the Republicans of Kentucky, being the one man of his party to serve a term as Governor during the history of the State, and being honored as the Kentucky candidate for the Presidential nomination in 1894; has been many times a delegate to national conventions, long the Kentucky member of the Republican National Committee, and has been offered but declined the appointment by President Harrison as Minister to Korea.

He is a native Kentuckian, nearly 61 years old, a lawyer who was admitted to the bar in 1885 by special act of the Legislature, being under 21 years of age at the time. His home is in Louisville.

KING RECEIVES CAL

WILL REPORT FOWLER BILL.
House Committee on Banking so Decides.
It Does Away With Treasury Checks.
Simple Monetary Claimed For It.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—By a vote of 11 to 3, three members being present and not voting, the House Committee on Banking and Currency today authorized its chairman, Representative Fowler of New Jersey, to report to the House the Fowler currency bill with the recommendation that it be passed. The vote was cast as follows:
Ayes—Fowler, New Jersey; Prince, Illinois; Powers, Maine; McMoran, Michigan; Wrenn, Ohio; McCleary, Pennsylvania; Waldo, New York; Hayes, California; Weeks, Massachusetts; Dury, New York; Gillespie, Texas.
Noes—Burton, Ohio; Ollie James, Kentucky; McKinley, Illinois; Lewis, Georgia; Crawford, North Carolina.
Present and not voting—McHenry, Pennsylvania; Pajo, Louisiana; Gilles, Virginia.
Mr. Weeks, in voting for the favorable report of the bill, reserved the right to oppose the clause providing for a Federal guaranty for national bank deposits.
Though the conclusion to report the bill favorably was reached as the result of weeks of hearing and exhaustive discussion of its various provisions in executive session, the committee had not yet decided on the Banking and Currency Committee to its support on the floor of the House.
Ten of the eleven members who voted for the favorable report reserved the individual right to oppose any section of it, and to offer and urge any amendment, when the bill is called up. The majority of the committee felt the necessity of getting the bill before the House without further delay so that its provisions as revised in the committee become a subject of open debate both in the House and in the press of the country.

SIX AMENDMENTS MADE.
The committee amended the bill in six of its salient features. The clause permitting national banks to do a trust savings bank business was amended by striking out the savings bank section.
The clause making all national banks within each of the proposed reserve districts specifically liable for 18 per cent. of the check and note liability of failed national banks within that district was revised to read 25 per cent.
The bill, as originally framed, allowed each national bank to take out national credit notes to the extent of 100 per cent. of its capital stock with the approval of the Comptroller of the Treasury, and an unlimited additional amount with the approval of the board of managers of the reserve district to which the bank belonged. This provision was revised so that the total amount of credit notes issuable to any bank shall not exceed 200 per cent. of its capital stock.
The bill provides that of the deposit guaranty fund to be created by a tax of 2 per cent. on the credit notes issued, 50 per cent. shall be invested in United States 2 per cent. bonds, and 25 per cent. held in reserve. This is a gold fund.
The bill as revised, stipulates the investment of the entire bond in United States 2s, and fixes their flat purchase price at 104, and the minimum sale price for the month of February last.
The revised bill, in order to carry out the bond currency retirement clause, provides that the sum of $25,000,000 of the Treasury shall issue gold certificates to the place of an equal amount of outstanding greenbacks. As the estimated annual tax on credit notes would be $14,000,000, about fourteen years would be required for the total retirement of the country's present bond-secured currency under the guaranty fund reached the amount of $25,000,000.

PROVIDES CHECKING SYSTEM.
One of the most interesting provisions of the bill, as revised in committee, requires the government to collect its claims and pay its current expenses through the banks. That is, the government would continue to hold in the treasury the greenback redemption fund of $150,000,000, and the gold certificate redemption fund, amounting to $85,000,000, but its general fund for the conduct of the government would be kept on deposit in the national banks, subject to check; and instead of paying out general moneys by voucher and treasury checks, payments would be by bank checks.
At the minority conference some weeks ago which resulted in the introduction by John Sharp Williams of the minority currency bill, the plan was practically agreed to that the Democratic members of the Banking and Currency Committee should at the proper time make a majority report offering the Williams bill as a substitute for the Fowler bill. This was tentatively submitted to a joint conference to be held by the minority of the Finance Committee in the Senate and Banking and Currency Committee in the House. The reason reported is that the minority in the Senate has bound itself to the Bailey bill as a substitute for the Aldrich bill, and therefore is unwilling to confer with the House minority on the Williams bill. Ten days were granted by the committee to the Democratic members in which to agree upon a substitute measure for the Fowler bill and to submit a minority report.

SYNOPSIS OF BILL.
Chairman Fowler tonight made public a synopsis report of the committee which he will make up and submit to the House.
The synopsis claims for the bill that it will unify the banks in the United States, will secure a uniform and adequate reserve in gold coin to prove all bank credits and thereby protect the interests of all depositors; establish a scientific and simple monetary system; will give the country a true credit currency system by which current credits will increase and decrease in strict accordance with the demands of business; will give bankers, farmers, producers, manufacturers and merchants and to all others having bank accounts—the right to have their credits in that form which best serve their needs; will give to the masses of the people just as economical and cheap credits as the rich and powerful have, will establish a currency based upon the products of labor and redeemable in gold coin, will give to producers and merchants the opportunity to turn their commodities

NEW LAW IS OPPOSED.
Railroad Men Protest Against Nine-Hour Shift.
Union Pacific Official Denies Intimidation.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—When the hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission on the application for an extension of the nine-hour law was resumed today, Hilary A. Herbert, former Secretary of the Navy, made an argument in behalf of the railroad men. He contended that owing to the financial condition of the road it could not comply with the law without embarrassment in its operating expenses.
Mr. Dillard, representing the Union Pacific, stated that it would be impossible for his line at various remote stations to supply accommodations to a third operator.
H. B. Perham, president of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, stated that he had secured information from points along the Union Pacific that it was entirely possible for the extra operator to be provided with accommodations named by Mr. Dillard. E. L. Stump, general chairman of the Union Pacific telegraphers, also stated that accommodations could be furnished.

GAUNT IS QUESTIONED.
In presenting the case of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe Company, C. H. Gaunt, assistant general manager, said he could not say whether the company's telegraphers had been threatened with discharge if they refused to sign letters which were written at the dictation of officials of the Santa Fe Railroad. Mr. Gaunt presented some of the letters which he had in hand, and Chairman Knapp inquired if they had been prepared by officials of the company.
"They were not," replied Mr. Gaunt. The chairman then read a letter from an operator who said that he had been presented with a letter prepared for his signature by an official of the company.

CRY OF INTIMIDATION.
Mr. Perham, president of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, explained that he had in his possession letters from 1000 or more operators on the Santa Fe system authorizing him to represent them at this hearing. He alleged that the Santa Fe endeavored to intimidate its operators; that operators had been discharged for trivial causes, among the causes being membership in the Order of Railway Telegraphers. He produced a telegram informing him that three operators had been discharged because they had declined to sign a letter to the Interstate Commerce Commission presented to them by the company.
Mr. Gaunt explained that the Santa Fe telegraphers had been in the Union because of the strike on the line several years ago, and that owing to that trouble it is experiencing difficulty in getting the men to man its wires under the new law.

WILL PUSH IT THROUGH.
Representative McLaughlin has taken charge of Wilmington Harbor Bill, and will see it to its passage.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative McLaughlin has taken charge of the resolution which passed the Senate yesterday providing for the establishment of the harbor lines in Wilmington harbor, and will push it through the House. He said today that as soon as the committee reports, it will be passed without difficulty.

NO MORE BOY MESSENGERS.
Postmaster-General Meyer Thinks Service Is Prejudicial to Their Welfare.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Postmaster-General Meyer is of the opinion that it is prejudicial to the welfare of "Young America" to employ him as a special delivery messenger in the postal service, and has issued an order to the effect that whenever a vacancy occurs in the force of special delivery messengers the position shall not be filled, and that sub-letter carriers and clerks shall be employed to effect special deliveries.
He states that the messengers boys are called upon frequently to visit long distances late at night in order to deliver mail, and that the private employment of army bands in times through fear or weariness. The object of the order is to bring about the gradual discontinuance of the service of these juvenile messengers.

PACIFIC GETS ONE.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The House Committee on Naval Affairs today agreed to an authorization for the construction of two steel floating dry docks capable of holding a battleship of 20,000 tons, one to be located on the Atlantic and the other on the Pacific, and also the establishment of a naval station and graving dock at Pearl Harbor.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.
Japanese Detected Inspecting Fort Crockett, Near Galveston, and Driven Away.
GALVESTON (Tex.), Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Kyochi Aki, a Japanese engineer, who says he is in this country studying harbor and navigation work for his government, was driven away from the fortifications at Fort Crockett, where the batteries have just been completed. No troops are stationed there yet. Aki asked many questions about the fort from the boatmen, and studied the batteries through glasses.

HEARST PAPERS SCORED.
Statement came news that six arrests had been made in eastern cities of men suspected of being accomplices of the murderer, J. Vanu.

statement came news that six arrests had been made in eastern cities of men suspected of being accomplices of the murderer, J. Vanu. Vanu was arrested in New York today, charged with being the chief of the society while in Pittsburgh and Orestes Soli, Thomas Casabro, Orestes Malavai and Emilio Toimel were locked up for being implicated as members of the society. The police of New York and Pittsburgh say they have evidence which connects these men with the killing of Father Leo.

Arrests have been made in four other cities, but because the police of these cities are shadowing other men, no information is given out as to who the arrested men are.
Chief Delaney said today that he was not sure whether Alo was merely a tool of the World-Catholicism, which he said all these men belong, or whether he was the ringleader.

ALLO MAKES NEW STATEMENT.
Alo, conferring with Robert H. Widdicombe, the counsel appointed by the court to conduct his defense, repudiated the original statement made by him in jail at Colorado Springs, as well as all his other confessions.
"I didn't kill the priest," he said. "I was a Catholic, and went to the church to pray. I didn't go there to receive the sacrament. When I was kneeling, a priest came along and put the sacrament in my mouth. It is against the rules of the Catholic church to take the sacrament without first having been to confession, so I spat it out. The priest fell back, and I heard everybody jump. It became a strange scene to me. I was afraid, and I ran out."

Alo is in poor physical condition. He has quite evidently undergone privation in his story of living on a single meal a day at the free soup house would seem to be borne out by his drawn face and weak frame.

PREACHERS JOIN IN FIGHT ON ANARCHY.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Vigorous attacks, in open defiance of threats and attempted violence of the miscreants against the Roman Catholic clergy of Chicago, will be made against anarchism, anti-clericalism and socialism in several pulpits next Sunday, and thereafter it will be carried on systematically in different parts of the city through Catholic organizations, the pulpit, press and parochial schools.

This sensational prospect was revealed when several priests announced today that in asking for prayers for the repose of the soul of Rev. Leo Heinrich, who was murdered at the Chicago union hall in St. Elizabeth's Church, in Denver, they would sound a note of warning and condemnation against anti-clericalism, anarchism and socialism. Their opposition will be along the lines of the various encyclicals issued upon those and other radical lines by the popes.

In view of the agitation by foes of the church at this time some of the Chicago priests expect that Pope Pius X. may come forth with an encyclical in the near future which will reiterate the condemnation and opposition of the Catholic church to the teachings urged by them.

Chief of Police Shippy has ordered special precautions to be taken to protect the various church services, and other means have been arranged for by the Chief to make the repetition of the Chicago clergy of the Sunday churchgoing crowds. These bodies will keep a special watch throughout all the services.

ANARCHISTS BELIEVED TO BE DEVELOPING PLOT.

Such Is Decision Arrived by Harriman.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] J. Ogden Armour, president of Armour & Co., will be elected director of the Illinois Central Railroad Company Monday when the stockholders' meeting is held. Mr. Armour will take the place of St. Vincent Fish, who has given up the fight against E. Harriman.

Mr. Armour will be elected to place because Mr. Harriman decided that it should go to a resident of Chicago and a citizen of Illinois. It is a recognition on the part of Mr. Harriman of the wishes of the commercial and industrial life of the country. Mr. Armour has long been financially interested in the St. Paul road. His broadening interest in enterprises was demonstrated when he acquired control of the Illinois Central Company, made it the Chicago Subway Company, and started in the business of passenger cars. Mr. Armour & Co. has done the vast amount of property, a fact which may appear startling to those knowing the arm's value as a family business. His father, P. D. Armour, was a head.

ATTELL PLAYS WITH KELLY.

Has Buffalo Newsboy Helpless in the Seventh.

Outboxes Game Easterner and Then Beats Him up.

Nolan Sets Afloat Story of Possible Jobbery.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Absolutely outclassing his man, the Attell knocked down Eddie Kelly of Buffalo three times last night in rapid succession in the seventh round, and only the interference of the police prevented an actual knockout.

A stiff right swing to the jaw sent the eastern boy down for the count of five. As he stood on his feet, vicious rights and lefts put him to the canvas for the second time, and the same lightning punches that he was powerless to block, put him down on the third occasion. Eight seconds had been tolled off when Captain of Police Duke called an end to the one-sided affair.

Attell's mastery over the Buffalo newsboy, whose chief claim to fame is that he has a face like Terry McGovern, was remarkable, and his cleverness was marred only by the absolute lack of knowledge that Kelly displayed.

"All there is about him that looked like a boxer," remarked someone between rounds, "is that he has got a fighting face."

That left Kelly out. His vaunted punch was a pitiful quantity. For the most part he slugged with the open glove, and when Attell found that the Buffalo man could not hurt him, he played with Kelly for the bulk of the time, and when he was ready to finish him up, ended the business in decisive order.

The seventh and last was easily the best round of the affair, for it was the one in which Attell opened up. As the men left their corner, Kelly met Kelly with a vicious left. He followed that with a right, setting himself each time in order to give more force to his blows.

Attell's right was what first toppled over the third Kelly. He took the count, under instructions from his corner, but when he stood upright he was met with a series of rights and lefts that quickly sent him down. He was up before the count of ten and with the aid of the crowd for Attell to finish it up, he again smothered Kelly and the Buffalo boy curled up on the floor.

Attell turned toward his corner, evidently with a plea to stop the fight, but the police saved him the trouble.

WANTS IT STOPPED.
"Stop it!" yelled Attell to Billy Nolan, Eddie's chief second. "I don't want to kill him." But his importunities went unheeded.

Attell, in this fight, is credited with showing more power to his punches than in any of his previous fights. Kelly seemed to have no defense against him and was an easy mark for his straight left hooks to the body and straight rights to the jaw. Kelly showed plainly that he was in Attell's class. He was willing and game, however, and kept trying even when the chances were against him.

Early in the evening there were rumors afloat that there was something crooked and that all bets would be called off. But the story emanated from Billy Nolan, who had bet his money that Kelly would go the limit, and was afterward approached by certain people who told him some suspicious facts.

"Some stories were floating around," said Nolan, "that Kelly might quit before the end of the fight. I heard that his former manager, Billy Silvers, who is stopping at Millet's, where Attell trained, was carrying stories, and then, when he was asked for other sources, I simply told Gleason what I had heard."

Gleason, on receipt of this information, informed Referee Jack Welch what he knew, and suggested that he prevent any trouble the referee call off all bets. Welch refused, stating that he was not a betting man, and that he would not call off the bets.

All this party took place before the contest, but the fight itself certainly developed nothing of a suspicious nature or any probability that there was an agreement. Kelly was a novice in the hands of a victory of the California, and his mercy at any and all stages, and instead of being a 2 to 1 proposition, Kelly was extremely fortunate that he was so highly rated.

In the first preliminary to the Attell-Kelly fight tonight, Sailor Gordon of the navy gained an easy decision over Fred Ward of the California, and the referee stopping the contest after McGee had gone to the mat three times.

FIGHT BY ROUNDS.
First round—They shook hands, and missed with left leads. Attell scored first with right to the stomach and left to the face. They fought to close quarters, and mixed without damage.

Kelly shot his left to the ribs, and was rewarded with two lefts and a right to the face. A clinch followed, and Attell swung right hard to the head and face. Attell missed several lefts to the face, and the bell rang with the men still in a close quarters. It was an even round.

Second round—Attell came up cheering and looking a bit serious. He hooked left to the face, and then like lightning shot right and left to the face before the Buffalo boy was set. Kelly slipped to the left, and a misdirected punch. He was up in a moment, and they went to it at close range, both blocking cleverly. Kelly astonished the crowd by his cleverness, which was in no wise dimmed by the reputed superiority of the California. The bell rang with Attell having slight advantage.

Third round—Kelly swung two lefts to the face, and Attell swung a short right to the jaw at close range. The men fought shoulder to shoulder in the center of the ring. Kelly having the better of a vicious mix. They kept up at this fast clip. Kelly landing right and left to the jaw and body. The men separated, and Attell swung his left twice to the face, and the gong rang. It was Kelly's round, and he was vigorously cheered as he took his seat.

Fourth round—Kelly forced matters, but was met with a hard straight right to the face. Kelly sent his left to the Kelly rocking Attell's head with short arm jolts as the round ended. Kelly had the advantage of a round of fast milling.

Fifth round—It was an even round, with both displaying great cleverness and light power in hitting.

Sixth round—Attell hooked two wicked rights to the jaw and followed it with a scorching left to the same place. Hitting Kelly back with one hand, Attell turned loose with right to the face and body. Both were mixing, but Kelly was in the close of the round, and a thin stream of blood seeped from Attell's nose. Attell had the advantage.

Seventh round—Attell swung right and left hard to the jaw and then brought his left to the body. He shot his right straight to the jaw and then swung three terrific lefts to the jaw. Attell went in, sealing right and left to the jaw with unerring precision. Kelly was groggy, but he fought back like a wild man, only to be felled for the third time.

He was up, but Attell sent him to the floor twice with lefts to the jaw. Kelly was very groggy. He took the count of nine, and when Attell floored him again, Police Captain Duke stepped into the ring and stopped the contest. Attell was given the decision by Referee Jack Welch.

EASY VICTORY FOR STANFORD.

Cardinal Batters Drive Lamer from Box.

Ybarando Takes His Place in Seventh Inning.

Saints Score Two Through Errors of Ganong.

Stanford won from St. Vincent's in the baseball game at Chiswick Park, yesterday, by the score of 4 to 2, outplaying the local team in the field and at the bat. Stanford's only weak place was in the catcher's position. The two St. Vincent's runs were scored through the inexperience of Ganong, the Cardinal backstop, whose error in judgment and wild throw to second let in the tallies in the fifth inning.

St. Vincent's lost interest in the game after the seventh inning, when Stanford added three runs by landing hard on Lamer. This took the spirit out of the Los Angeles team, and neither side scored after this inning. The remainder of the game was uninteresting to the 600 fans who attended.

Lamer, who pitched for the Saints, proved ineffective. After the disastrous seventh, Ybarando changed positions with Lamer, and Stanford got no more hits. Lamer was wild at the start, forcing in a run in the first inning. His support was poor. Hemphill, failing to show confidence, and bunting at critical moments.

The St. Vincent's infield handled the ball fairly well, but was slow in passing it around the bases. First baseman O'Rourke's head, and dropped a throw to the base at a bad time, and both Callahan and Gray dropped flies.

Wirt, in the Stanford center field, made a sensational catch of a long fly by Phil in the fourth inning. Wirt sent the ball back close to the outfield fence, but Wirt made a long sprint, and cut off a probable home run.

Sampson, at shortstop, got most of St. Vincent's infield drives. He fielded cleverly and played an accurate and speedy wing in his throwing. Harry Bell, who was released by Phil in the fourth inning, was replaced by Coach Freasley, filled his new position very acceptably.

STANFORD SCORES FIRST.
Stanford scored in the first inning, with a roving run and again in the fifth, when the Cardinal batters were beginning to find Lamer in earnest. St. Vincent's tied the score in the same inning. Stanford made one in the sixth, and clinched the game in the seventh with the final three.

Stanford went to bat first, Scott leading off. He was a pretty good hitter. Lamer over followed with a long fly into Gray's hands in center field. Gray misjudged it, running too far. Lamer then walked Sampson, filling the bases. He hit Ganong with a pitched ball, forcing Owen across the plate. Wirt went out on a pop-up to Ybarando, retiring the side.

Vincent's out with two infield grounders and a strike-out. Stanford got three men on in the sixth, and scored a pretty bad hit over first, but nobody scored. In the same inning Callahan got a good hit off Wirt, sending the ball between first and second bases, and second, Ganong throwing wild. O'Rourke struck out and retired the side.

On the fifth Owen got on by beating out Flick's throw to first, and was advanced to second by Fenton's hit to right field. In the same field, and Brannen headed Owen off at third with a beautiful throw, which Corbin dropped. Sampson bunted.

St. Vincent's came to bat in the fifth to tie the score. Ybarando went out on a fly, Callahan scored a line, O'Rourke also flew out. Brannen hit to right, Ybarando going to third from first.

WORKS DOUBLE STEAL.
With Lamer at bat, St. Vincent's worked the double steal on the first ball across the plate, scoring Callahan. Ganong waited too long to throw to second. A second throw to second went wild and Brannen in, tying the score. St. Vincent's went out in one, two, three order.

The seventh gave Stanford the balance of the Cardinal runs. Owen led off with a two-bagger. Following Fenton's strike-out, Bell hit to left, Owen hit to third, Bell and Owen worked a double steal for a tally. Ybarando and Flick colliding and fumbling the throw to second, Sampson hit for three bases, scoring Bell and after getting into a tight place off third, crossed the plate through bad wild throws by Grindle and Flick. Ybarando went in for Lamer at this juncture.

In today's game Stanford will put in a different battery, using the veteran Thiele as pitcher, while Mow Mitchell, formerly of the L. A. High team, will catch. For St. Vincent's, Kerfoot will pitch and Lamer will go to shortstop. Flick will be in his old position at second, and Tommy Ybarando will be in the outfield.

EASY VICTORY FOR STANFORD.

Cardinal Batters Drive Lamer from Box.

Ybarando Takes His Place in Seventh Inning.

Saints Score Two Through Errors of Ganong.

Stanford won from St. Vincent's in the baseball game at Chiswick Park, yesterday, by the score of 4 to 2, outplaying the local team in the field and at the bat.

Stanford's only weak place was in the catcher's position. The two St. Vincent's runs were scored through the inexperience of Ganong, the Cardinal backstop, whose error in judgment and wild throw to second let in the tallies in the fifth inning.

St. Vincent's lost interest in the game after the seventh inning, when Stanford added three runs by landing hard on Lamer. This took the spirit out of the Los Angeles team, and neither side scored after this inning. The remainder of the game was uninteresting to the 600 fans who attended.

Lamer, who pitched for the Saints, proved ineffective. After the disastrous seventh, Ybarando changed positions with Lamer, and Stanford got no more hits. Lamer was wild at the start, forcing in a run in the first inning. His support was poor. Hemphill, failing to show confidence, and bunting at critical moments.

The St. Vincent's infield handled the ball fairly well, but was slow in passing it around the bases. First baseman O'Rourke's head, and dropped a throw to the base at a bad time, and both Callahan and Gray dropped flies.

Wirt, in the Stanford center field, made a sensational catch of a long fly by Phil in the fourth inning. Wirt sent the ball back close to the outfield fence, but Wirt made a long sprint, and cut off a probable home run.

Sampson, at shortstop, got most of St. Vincent's infield drives. He fielded cleverly and played an accurate and speedy wing in his throwing. Harry Bell, who was released by Phil in the fourth inning, was replaced by Coach Freasley, filled his new position very acceptably.

STANFORD SCORES FIRST.
Stanford scored in the first inning, with a roving run and again in the fifth, when the Cardinal batters were beginning to find Lamer in earnest. St. Vincent's tied the score in the same inning. Stanford made one in the sixth, and clinched the game in the seventh with the final three.

Stanford went to bat first, Scott leading off. He was a pretty good hitter. Lamer over followed with a long fly into Gray's hands in center field. Gray misjudged it, running too far. Lamer then walked Sampson, filling the bases. He hit Ganong with a pitched ball, forcing Owen across the plate. Wirt went out on a pop-up to Ybarando, retiring the side.

Vincent's out with two infield grounders and a strike-out. Stanford got three men on in the sixth, and scored a pretty bad hit over first, but nobody scored. In the same inning Callahan got a good hit off Wirt, sending the ball between first and second bases, and second, Ganong throwing wild. O'Rourke struck out and retired the side.

On the fifth Owen got on by beating out Flick's throw to first, and was advanced to second by Fenton's hit to right field. In the same field, and Brannen headed Owen off at third with a beautiful throw, which Corbin dropped. Sampson bunted.

St. Vincent's came to bat in the fifth to tie the score. Ybarando went out on a fly, Callahan scored a line, O'Rourke also flew out. Brannen hit to right, Ybarando going to third from first.

WORKS DOUBLE STEAL.
With Lamer at bat, St. Vincent's worked the double steal on the first ball across the plate, scoring Callahan. Ganong waited too long to throw to second. A second throw to second went wild and Brannen in, tying the score. St. Vincent's went out in one, two, three order.

The seventh gave Stanford the balance of the Cardinal runs. Owen led off with a two-bagger. Following Fenton's strike-out, Bell hit to left, Owen hit to third, Bell and Owen worked a double steal for a tally. Ybarando and Flick colliding and fumbling the throw to second, Sampson hit for three bases, scoring Bell and after getting into a tight place off third, crossed the plate through bad wild throws by Grindle and Flick. Ybarando went in for Lamer at this juncture.

In today's game Stanford will put in a different battery, using the veteran Thiele as pitcher, while Mow Mitchell, formerly of the L. A. High team, will catch. For St. Vincent's, Kerfoot will pitch and Lamer will go to shortstop. Flick will be in his old position at second, and Tommy Ybarando will be in the outfield.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

Look before you "leap."

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Donations for Charity.

The Times has received the following amounts for Bethlehem Institution, Hollywood friends, $5.10; William, Ariz., $1.

Bank Clerks Entertain.

The Bank Clerks' Association entertained its friends with a dance at Kramer's last evening. There was a large attendance.

At Ethel Club House.

The Shrove Tuesday fancy-dress party planned by the Good Shepherd Auxiliary for Monday evening will be given at the Ethel Club house.

Community Club Social.

Judge Wilbur will be the principal speaker of the evening at a smoke talk and social of the Community Club at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the club rooms in the rear of St. Mark's Church, Seventh street and Towne avenue.

Carreno's Concluding Concert.

Mrs. Teresa Carreno's concluding concert was given last night at Simpson Auditorium, before a fair-sized and eminently appreciative audience. The pianist was heard in a diversified repertoire, interspersed with numerous encores.

Plan Ladies' Night.

A ladies' night, with appropriate entertainment features, is planned for the near future by the Sixth Ward Republican Club. To that end and to transact important matters of business, the club will hold a meeting this evening at the headquarters, Adams street and Central avenue.

Will Play for Charity.

The young ladies of St. Agnes Guild of St. John's Episcopal Church will give an entertainment and musical Monday night in the parish house, Figueroa and Adams streets. "Madame Grundy's Dilemma" and "A Boarding-House School Parody" will be produced by members of the guild, who have been carefully drilled the past few weeks. A Spanish dance is an interesting feature of the programme. The proceeds are to be applied to charity.

For "Tater" Patches.

The appeal in The Times, made by Dana Bartlett for the Russian colony, and asking for the use of land to be cropped with potatoes, brought several prompt responses. A man at Guadalupe was the first by telephone, offering forty acres at that place, and then came the offer of four lots at Redondo. Mr. Bartlett desires to secure the ground, not necessarily in adjoining plots, but in the same neighborhood, but if nothing better can be done, he will make an effort to avail himself of the use of the small plots wherever offered. He said last night that the Russians are showing a keen interest in the movement.

SCALP TORN OFF; KILLED. Painter is Dragged More Than Black Behind Runaway Team and Shockingly Injured.

J. W. Horne, a painter and decorator of No. 664½ South Main street, died at the Clarr. Barton Hospital yesterday from injuries received in a runaway accident. He was 60 years old.

While driving a team hitched to a light wagon, the animals became unmanageable and ran. At Sixth and Locust streets there was a collision with another vehicle and the painter was thrown from his seat. But his feet were caught in the reins and he was dragged for more than a block. His scalp was torn off and his ribs broken.

King Victor Emmanuel yesterday morning went to the Forum in Rome and inspected the new excavations begun last Saturday under the direction of Giacomo Boni. The King expressed admiration of the remains of the ancient Temple of Jupiter situated under the arch of Titus, the foundation of which tradition ascribes to Romulus. ## GERMANY DEALS WITH SUBJECTS.

MEASURE FOR RULE OF THE POLES IS PASSED.

Prussian House of Lords Ratifies the Expropriation Bill After Sharp Antagonism in the Highest Circles of the Empire—The Vote Shows Irregular Groupings.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) BERLIN, Feb. 23.—Few legislative measures of recent years have excited such deep interest among the people as the Polish expropriation bill, the principle of which was ratified in the Prussian House of Lords yesterday, nor has any measure produced such sharp antagonism in the highest circles of Germany.

It was noticed yesterday in the House of Lords as a striking circumstance that a number of persons having the closest relations with Emperor William voted against the government. These included Duke Ernst Gunther of Schleswig-Holstein, the Emperor's brother-in-law; Prince zu Fürstenberg, who holds one of the highest positions in the Emperor's household; the duke of Trachenberg, Prince Hatzfeld, Chief of the Royal Cellars; Herr von Wedel-Friedrich who was at one time minister of the Royal House; Admiral von Holtman, ex-minister of Marine; Count Thiele-Winkler, one of His Majesty's favorites among the great industrial magnates of Germany; and Gen. Count Haessler, who has been the recipient of many marks of special favor from the Emperor.

The vote yesterday showed irregular groupings. The strength of the opposition was with the great aristocratic land holders, who rejected the principle of expropriation because it might prove a dangerous precedent, later should the Socialists come into power. One of the great landholders even expressed apprehension lest the Radicals, if they ever secured the upper hand, would use the bill as a weapon for disposing of the German owners of large estates. The Conservative spokesmen yesterday taunted the government with passing a measure that can give satisfaction only to aristocrats, inasmuch as it is based on the socialist principle of the supremacy of the state over the rights of private property.

The measure now returns to the chamber, which is expected to accept the slight changes made by the House of Lords without encountering serious difficulty. The German newspapers this morning discuss at length the Polish expropriation. Surprise is expressed at the latest government majority. The Lokal Anzeiger saying that this means the enactment of a harsh and extraordinary measure. The Tagblatt declares that the bill is a double-edged weapon which may turn against the government.

The conservative journals consider the enactment of the bill the only means of securing a practical result in the Germanization of the Polish provinces.

RUMOR AGAIN CURRENT.

Report Afloat Yesterday in Washington That Comptroller of Currency Will Soon Resign.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It was again reported this afternoon that Comptroller of the Currency Ridgely would resign shortly and that he would be succeeded by Lawrence E. Murray of the Department of Commerce and Labor. It is thought that Mr. Ridgely will become head of the National Bank of Commerce of Kansas City.

MOTHER GETS THE MONEY.

"Widow" of Supposed Man "Nicholai de Raylan, Receives no Part of the Estate.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Proof of heirship in the $7000 estate of Nicholai de Raylan, who masqueraded for years as a man and whose true sex was discovered only after her death in Arizona, was made in the probate court yesterday. Baron Schlippenbach, whose secretary "De Raylan" was, showed that Seraphina Terletsky, the mother, who resides in Russia, is the next of kin and only heir at law. "De Raylan," or Anna Terletsky, as she was known, was the daughter of Constantin Terletsky. On the death of her father, she assumed the name of Nicholai Konstantinovich, but later discarded that for Nicholai de Raylan. She was "married" twice, but her "widow" has no share in the estate.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Mayor Harper has declined to accept the "whitewash" statement issued by the Civil Service Board and has demanded that the commissioners reply publicly and in detail to the charges contained in a statement issued by Capt. Klier, former examiner.

A Council caucus was held behind closed doors at the City Hall yesterday to discuss the charges against the commissioners. Three commissioners left the meeting and the others adjourned without reaching any agreement.

D. J. Lewis, who was tried for alleged illegal registration at Ocean Park, was acquitted by a jury in Judge Conroy's court yesterday. Contempt proceedings against Chief Deputy District Attorney Hartley Shaw and Deputy District Attorney G. Ray Horton were continued till Tuesday.

The Supervisors were yesterday served with formal notice by the Trustees of San Pedro that they intend to regulate wharfage tolls, and object to county decision.

Judge Smith yesterday pronounced unconstitutional the city ordinance governing the issue of power plant licenses by the Board of Fire Commissioners. The court sustained the validity of the ordinance of South Pasadena against poolrooms.

Judge Wilbur yesterday took under advisement the argument in the appeal suit of Ralph Merriam, who attacked the validity of the Pasadena curfew ordinance.

Judge Smith yesterday granted the Abbott Kinney Company an order restraining for one week the prosecution of forty-seven suits brought by the Ocean Park officials against the corporation under the anti-tenement ordinance.

AT THE CITY HALL.

MUST ESCHWE "WHITEWASH."

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD FORCED TO INVESTIGATE.

Mayor Demands That the Commission Make a Public Reply to the Charges Contained in Statement of Capt. Klier, Former Examiner. Looks Like "Family Affair."

The Civil Service Commission is searching, under the cover of secrecy, to secure material to be used in refutation of certain grave allegations which are contained in a signed statement issued by Capt. Klier, former examiner, and published in The Times last Sunday. In the beginning, the commission thought that the most of whitewash with which it covered itself the week before would be sufficient to ward off an investigation.

Capt. Klier served as examiner for the Civil Service Board for three years. He alleges that favoritism was rampant in many of the examinations held by the Civil Service Board. Before leaving the city on his Owens River trip, Mayor Harper called Chairman Edelman of the Civil Service Board to his office and there informed him that the board must reply publicly to the charges in the statement made by Capt. Klier. He said the board must explain what it did or failed to do in the examination of service provisions of the charter, and fix the blame.

Chairman Edelman promised that there should be an investigation. Then he called the other commissioners to an executive session and told them that the whitewash wouldn't answer; that the board must make a public reply. He said that the board must do something definite must be done. It is this "something definite" that is troubling the commissioners. About the City Hall there are rumors that may portend a storm; men who have taken examinations for places and failed are asking some pointed questions about how a certain favorite happened to win.

Before the investigation is finished, the commissioners may be asked to tell something about those examinations in which their relatives made exceptionally fine scores. Not long ago, apparently, a nephew of one commissioner secured an easy place in the health department soon after his uncle was appointed to the board, and the brother-in-law of another is a "favorite son" in the Police Collector's office.

Relatives of Mayor Harper have also found civil service easy, as have certain relatives of members of the Council. Among the city's employees these relatives are all placed in one class—they are called the "sharpshooters." The investigation which they aim at is a city position is unimpaired.

The civil-service commissioners are working through friends and favorites to secure a "favorable" statement of "liability" evidence to present to the Mayor on his return. The investigation will be as much in the nature of another whitewash as the Mayor and Council will permit.

The commissioners still insist that Capt. Klier was dismissed for tampering with the examination process. It is on record that after this dismissal these same commissioners recommended Capt. Klier in the highest terms to the health department, and that it was by reason of the strong representations which they made that Capt. Klier was appointed to a place as sanitary inspector.

Before the investigation is finished the Mayor and Council are likely to ask for particulars of the other "investigation" which the commissioners assert that they made after dismissing Capt. Klier. In their whitewash statement they said this investigation was "searching;" the records of the commission fail to show that a single applicant was examined a second time to discover whether there was any "tampering with papers" in the original test.

The search was about as strenuous and effective as that the Standard Oil Company made to discover whether any of its thousands of employees had been guilty of accepting rebates.

COUNCIL GROWS COY.

MORE EXECUTIVE SESSIONS.

The Council went into executive session yesterday morning to explain to Auditor Mushet some of the details of that "gentlemen's agreement" concerning the rates charged by the local electric light companies. The Auditor has prepared some figures purporting to show that this agreement is costing taxpayers about 10 cents per kilowatt for the light used.

After three hours' discussion, in secret the Councilmen found themselves further from an understanding than when they started; apparently there will be a warm fight in the Council Monday over the lighting rates.

While locked in the Mayor's office some of the Councilmen attempted to settle the question of telephone rates; this discussion broke up the caucus. Councilman Wallace said that he thought the rates for the Home Com-

OCEAN PARK'S CITY RECORDER WON'T APPRECIATE IT.

He's Described as Not Knowing the Difference Between Law Book and Almanac—Council Engage in Verbal Tilt Over Forty-seven Suits Against Venice Tent Houses.

The trial of the first of forty-seven suits brought against the Abbott Kinney Company by Ocean Park officials against the corporation under the anti-tenement ordinance will be begun Monday, for Judge Smith yesterday granted a restraining order for one week, as asked by the Kinney company in its injunction suit against the beach city.

Next Friday the application for a permanent injunction will be argued in the Superior Court. City Attorney W. A. Anderson will then present voluminous affidavits.

The court granted the temporary order after a verbal tilt between counsel. "I am informed," said Attorney Jud Rush, representing the plaintiff, "that in addition to the suits already started, 48 more are to be filed without delay to compel the Abbott Kinney Company to remove the tent houses at Venice. I am confident that I can prove that this Ocean Park ordinance is unconstitutional. Why didn't they file one test case?"

"The first trial is scheduled to be held before the City Recorder of Ocean Park on Monday and we want action now on this matter. Under existing conditions, what's the sense of my going down there before that City Recorder, who used to be a ticket taker in a beach side show, and doesn't know the difference between a law book and an almanac?"

"I never told you or your associates that 48 more suits are to be filed," replied Ocean Park's attorney. "I am filing lengthy affidavits to present on this matter, and you knew last Monday that the first trial is scheduled for next Monday. We are anxious that this matter be argued Saturday."

Judge Smith finally decided that he would grant the injunction until the first case until the City Attorney can get his documents in shape.

The Abbott Kinney Company claims that the anti-tenement ordinance is unconstitutional because it involves the destruction of valuable property. Ocean Park officials are determined to do away with the objectionable (to them) structures.

SAN PEDRO'S IDEA.

WOULD RUN THE HARBOR.

Formal notice was filed on the Supervisors, yesterday, by the Trustees of San Pedro that the port city regards as a usurpation of its rights the fixing of wharfage rates and tolls and the issuance of licenses by the county.

The Trustees announce that in March the city will pass ordinances governing the portion of the harbor over which it has control. The resolution states a desire to act amicably with the county. In March the Supervisors pass the annual ordinance governing harbor rates, and they have not yet decided where they will do in violation of the action of the San Pedro legislators.

WILL CURFEW RING?

PASADENA LAW ATTACKED.

Pasadena's curfew ordinance was the subject of a vigorous onslaught by Attorney J. H. Merriam, of that city, in Judge Wilbur's court yesterday, when the appeal of his son, Ralph Merriam, 18 years old, from a conviction for violation of the law was heard. Decision was reserved.

The attorney attacked the constitutionality of the ordinance, which has been in force since 1901, on the ground that it is an illegal abridgment of the natural authority of parent over child, and contended that it requires further definition and limitation. Assistant City Attorney Paul Honberger of Pasadena contended that the law, by which children are prohibited from appearing on the streets after 8:30 o'clock in the evening without escort, comes within the proper police powers of the city and is for the benefit of public morals.

LEWIS NOT GUILTY.

ANOTHER OCEAN PARKER FREE.

After nineteen minutes' deliberation, the jury in the case of D. J. Lewis, who was on trial in Judge Conroy's court on a charge of illegal registration at Ocean Park, brought in a verdict of not guilty yesterday, and he was discharged.

Dist. Atty. Fredericks said yesterday afternoon that the cases against the other indicted men will not be dismissed. Thomas Thompson will be arraigned Monday morning.

Afternoon the demurrers of Chief Deputy Hartley Shaw and Deputy District Attorney G. Ray Horton in the contempt proceedings brought against them by the Ocean Park officials were sustained by Judge Conroy.

When the case was called, and he announced that he desired to change his plea of not guilty to one of guilty, the demurrer was overruled and sentence pronounced.

This of the Police Court that a railroad official has pleaded guilty to any charge.

E. E. Wells, general manager of the Salt Lake, against whom a similar indictment had been filed, will not be prosecuted.

The complaint against Cullen was issued after the accident at Macy street on the night of January 26, when a street car conductor was killed.

POOLROOM NOT USEFUL.

SOUTH PASADENA SUSTAINED.

That California laws grant cities police powers to regulate or to prohibit a business or occupation that may become a nuisance, was Judge Smith's ruling yesterday. He upheld the South Pasadena ordinance prohibiting poolrooms and remanded J. L. Murphy to custody.

Murphy was arrested on January 18 and such out a writ of habeas corpus to test the validity of the ordinance. His counsel argued that keeping a poolroom is a lawful business, subject to regulation, but not to suppression.

Judge Smith said, in part: "Our own State has never recognized the keeping of billiard halls and poolrooms as a useful occupation. In this State, if a business or occupation has any immoral tendencies, it may not only be regulated, but suppressed."

This doctrine has been held over and over again by our Supreme Court. The court declared that hotel billiard rooms are not unlawful, as they are not places of public amusement, but only for the use of guests.

POWER PLANT PERMITS. ORDINANCE UNCONSTITUTIONAL. The ordinance vesting the fire commissioners with power to grant or withhold permits for the installation of power plants in factories within the city limits was declared unconstitutional by Judge Smith yesterday. The opinion resulted from the habeas corpus proceedings brought by A. C. McKurtie, manager of the Talbot Concrete Building Block Company, who was arrested for installing a power plant without a permit.

The court, in ordering his release, declared that the ordinance gives the fire commissioners arbitrary powers, contrary to the constitutions of this State and of the United States. The city will appeal the case.

TWO FREE. At the District Attorney's request, Judge Smith yesterday granted a writ of habeas corpus to two men, Frederick Seymour and Mrs. Myra Seymour. He alleges that his father's English will has not been proved, according to California law. The demurrer of Mrs. Seymour was argued on March 12.

BURGLAR GETS YEAR. In sentencing C. F. Hagner to one year in San Quentin for the burglary of M. Carroll's house on November 11, Judge Wilbur intimated that the prisoner's application for parole was unsuccessful, despite good references from his family and friends.

CRUEL TO ANIMALS. Charles H. Kellogg and L. H. Byrnes, menageries, were fined and paid $125 each yesterday in Justice Selph's court. They were convicted of working two horses and two mules with sore shoulders. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was the complainant.

HOSPITAL ACCUSED. Charging that through the negligence of attendants she was horribly burned, Mrs. Helen Zumbach yesterday filed in the Superior Court a $10,000 damage suit against the Good Samaritan Hospital. She says that she went to the institution for treatment on November 28, and that four days afterward, while helpless in bed, application of hot water was made to her body that caused severe scalding, which resulted in disfiguring scars and a serious shock to her nervous system.

IN THE POLICE COURTS.

Salt Lake's Superintendent Pleads Guilty to Misdeemeanor—Chinese Fortune Teller Fined.

Thomas Cullen, superintendent of the Salt Lake Railroad, pleaded guilty yesterday to the charge of violating the ordinance which provides for the establishment of gates at all railroad crossings. Justice Fredericks fined him $150.

The superintendent's plea came as a great surprise to both the court and the prosecuting attorneys, for he had filed a demurrer to the complaint, which was to have been argued yesterday.

When the case was called, and he announced that he desired to change his plea of not guilty to one of guilty, the demurrer was overruled and sentence pronounced.

This of the Police Court that a railroad official has pleaded guilty to any charge.

E. E. Wells, general manager of the Salt Lake, against whom a similar indictment had been filed, will not be prosecuted.

The complaint against Cullen was issued after the accident at Macy street on the night of January 26, when a street car conductor was killed.

Ducked With Coffee.

Lee Yu Yen, who tells fortunes in Chinatown and who, with the aid of various charms, advises his fellow-countrymen how to win at fan-tan, was fined $50 yesterday in the Police Court for assaulting Lu Chen, a former friend.

The fortune teller attempted to "duck" a fan-tan game Thursday night and lost heavily. When he went home Lu Chen made facetious remarks, and Lee, picking up a coffee pot, poured the hot contents on his friend's head.

MINES AND MINING. MUST RECEIVE LOCAL SUPPORT.

Government Assay Office to Mean Much to City.

Bullion Clearinghouse of the Whole Southwest.

Need for Statistics on Our Mining Resources.

The news that Senator Flint has introduced a bill providing for the establishment of a government assay office in this city has been received with expressions of pleasure by men in all lines of commercial pursuits. The bill provides for the appropriation of $20,000 for the purpose and the engagement of a head assayer at $2500 a year with two assistants at $1500 each.

At the present time the nearest government assay office is in San Francisco and there is also one in Denver. The need of bullion in territory tributary to this city, and who do their banking business in Los Angeles, are now compelled to express their product to this point and it is then reexpressed to San Francisco. This entails a double charge of transportation—a considerable item upon valuable shipments of the kind.

A large portion of the bullion of the Southwest is sent direct to Denver in consequence, and those companies dealing in the eastern city usually find it convenient to do their banking business in the same place. As a consequence large sums of money are deposited to the East and it stands to reason that the establishment of a local office would prevent the eastern drain and benefit the city to a very large extent.

It will be remembered that soon after the Klondike boom started Senator Wilson of the State of Washington introduced a similar bill in Congress providing for the establishment of such an office in Seattle. Since then the amount of bullion that has passed through Seattle has been enormous and has contributed to the northern city's growth to an extent unequalled by any other office in the line. This may be more thoroughly understood when it is known that less than $10,000,000 in Alaskan gold was presented at the assay office last year and exchanged for cash. In almost every instance the bullion producers have opened banking accounts in local banks.

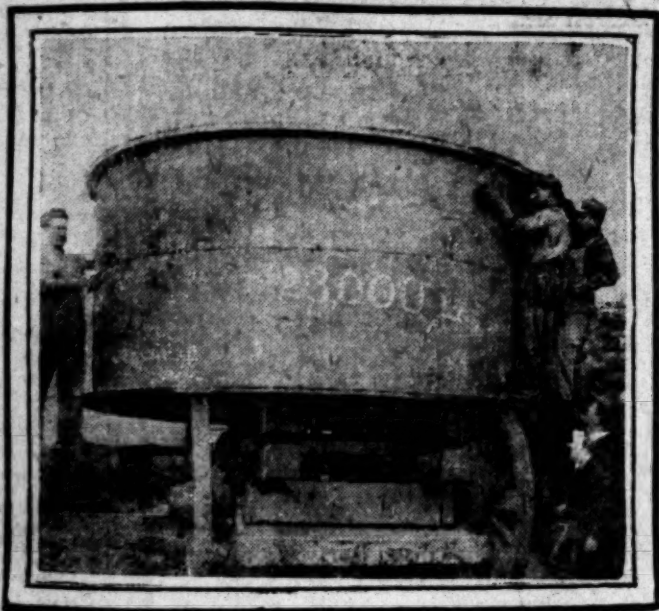

The enterprise means much to every business man in the city and it is hoped that every effort will be made to support Senator Flint in the good work which he has begun. Such public bodies as the Chamber of Commerce, the Los Angeles-Nevada Stock Exchange, the Los Angeles Manufacturers' Association and the Los Angeles-Nevada Stock Exchange should take official action at once and show to the world that Los Angeles is alive to her own interests and will do all that lays in her power to aid in the establishment of a government assay office, to which she is clearly entitled by inalienable right as the undisputed center of the greatest and richest mineral-bearing zone in the world.

Statistics Are Needed.
The articles on the local smelting situation, which have appeared from time to time in these columns, have crystallized the opinion that the time is now ripe for some definite move by the allied mining interests of the Southwest.

It would appear as if the Los Angeles Chamber of Mines could find in the exploitation of this work a profitable channel for the employment of its energy and thereby accomplish a result that would be of vast benefit to the industry which it represents in this community. The work of collecting data upon the situation would not cost more than a few months, if the proper man were employed, and the city would then be in position to present its advantages as a smelting center in an intelligent way. There is no doubt that ample capital can be commanded when investors are assured that the vaunted resources of a country really exist and the fact that the details were presented upon the authority of a public body like the Chamber of Mines would add much to the confidence of the public.

It is a simple matter to take up a subscription for the purpose. The general smelting situation, as it

BIGGEST CASTING MADE HERE FOR CORCORAN MILL.

The largest casting ever poured in Los Angeles was made at the Llewellyn Iron Works yesterday. The huge mass of iron weighing eleven and a half tons, is for the Pacific Beet Sugar Company's plant at Corcoran. It will be shipped to the factory for use as a vacuum pan. Several more similar pans will be made and installed in the evaporating section of the factory. The cost of each will be $2000.

Under the direction of William Llewellyn, molders and helpers labored for thirty days in making the mold. There was an anxious moment as the three big ladles, containing nearly twelve tons of molten iron, were poised over the box of sand. Then, as the word was given, the electric crane gave the ladles the right turn and the glowing mass poured through the comparatively small holes into the space from which the big patterns had been removed.

When released from its mold the vacuum pan was found to be perfect. Before the casting could be taken from the huge boxes into which the iron had been poured the heavy weights which had been placed on the box, as well as the iron clamps, representing a total weight of 150 tons, had to be removed.

The completion of the heavy piece of work is said to mark a new era in foundry operation in Los Angeles. Hereafter it will not be necessary to send to eastern foundries for the larger pieces of casting, as they can be made just as readily and probably at a lower total cost. In Los Angeles. The Llewellyn foundry has installed an electric crane capable of lifting and handling heavier castings than those made for the Pacific Beet Sugar factory. Skilled men, who have had experience in turning out big work, are employed, and in the future it is expected that many large castings will be made here.

effects the mining industry in this section of the world, has shown no improvement in the past few months. Troubles are still rife in Salt Lake, where most of the Southwest ores have hitherto been treated, and the Garfield and other plants which are running are being forced to close. The C. Horton Hart, a well-known metallurgist from the Northwest, is a guest in the city, and will probably make it his permanent home. He assembled and arranged the comprehensive mineral exhibit installed by the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, and may undertake a similar duty for the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. He is interested in the Lee-Redman group of mines in the Lee district, Nevada, and south of Barstow.

NEW THROOP PLANS.

ings of the new Throop Institute will be typical of the ideas held by the trustees. The well-ventilated complaint, that too many graduates of technical institutions are filled with knowledge of their own particular work, but are woefully lacking in general education, shall not be applicable to Throop Institute if the trustees have their way about it.

It is the determination to have the technical course as complete as that at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Worcester Technical School or Stevens' Institute, but at the same time a comprehensive course in arts and belles lettres will be provided. This is the great desire of Prof. George E. Hale, a trustee of Throop, and one of the leading scientists of the United States.

With this idea in view the technical buildings have not been placed in the foreground. The building at the right, on entering from the Wilson-avenue front, will be devoted to the arts, while the corresponding structure on the left will be given up to belles lettres. Looking along the avenue of live oaks between these two structures the other buildings will be visible.

The projected electrical engineering laboratory, which has its long side facing San Pasqual street, is to be one of the most important of the technical buildings. The corresponding location on the California-street side is to be the mechanical and hydraulic engineering laboratory.

These laboratories have been laid out along the general plan of an old Basilican church, with a high nave and with side aisles devoted to minor rooms. The arrangement is necessitated by the fact that a traveling crane must have space to move from one end of the building to the other.

The department of chemistry, mining and metallurgy, will be placed in a building on the north side of the campus, so located that the south-west corner will carry off all fumes. The structure will be immediately adjacent to the department of physics in order to facilitate academic work.

According to present plans of the trustees the first building to be erected will be that which will house the department of electrical engineering. This structure will cost between $100,000 and $150,000 and will be as complete as human ingenuity can make it.

The framework of the structure will be entirely of reinforced concrete. The plans show a series of columns, arranged symmetrically about the columns, the partitions will be built. These partitions, like those in all modern steel skeleton buildings, are movable, so that, at small expense, the interior of the structure can be arranged in almost any way, so long as the columns are not interfered with. At the outset it will be possible to house the entire institution in this one building, making rooms admirably suited to all the requirements. As the structures are completed the departments will be moved and the electrical engineering laboratories gradually added in each case until they finally occupy the entire building.

The school building is designed to have a central corridor with flanking rooms on either side. This corridor will be provided with double partitions of tile through the middle of which all electric wiring will be run. These wires and pipes will be led up through the walls from a conduit which will encircle the grounds and all connections can be made without disturbing the masonry. No building is to have more than two stories high and none will have a regular basement. In one or two places, where the nature of the ground makes it possible, rooms will be finished under the buildings, but this will be done in such a manner as to insure against injury to the symmetry of the whole.

POWER-HOUSE AND SHOPS.
The power-house and the shops will occupy the middle of the east end of the campus and the power-house chimney will be on the long axis of the campus. the Fleet.

through the efforts of F. A.
ranger, U.S.N. (retired), the warrant officers will be properly looked after when they reach Los Angeles.

Mr. McGregor is "willing to bet" that the service has been overseen in all the South American Fleet.

The Committee for the Entertainment of the Chiefs and Warrant Officers, comprising Mr. McGregor, C.
J. Kane and C. A. Canfield, met yesterday and talked over his plans. It was decided that half the warrant officers shall be entertained on the second floor and the other half on the recorder on the third day.

Special cars will meet them at the train and convey them to Chutes where they will witness the performance. Next they will be taken in one of the big hotels, where they will dine, after which they will be conveyed to Agricultural Park to the "Wild West" show and then around the city in the autos.

At night they will be the city's guests at one or other of the theaters. At the conclusion of the performance, special railroad cars will take them to their ships.

The committee will meet this morning at Mr. Canfield's office, when the programs will be discussed.

A man who will command some attention when he holds forth here is Cherrette, one of the chief actors on the Kentucky. He is one of the Merrimac heroes and shared the dangers attendant on the attempt to bottle Santiago during the war with Spain.

Los Angeles will be visited by a number of people while the warrants are off its ports is evident to the committee men who have any-ing to do with the arrangements for the excursion or the share in the entertainment which will fall to neighboring cities.

It seems as if the whole Southwest was to come," was the way Gen. F.
Pescott put it yesterday. He also said that members of the various clubs and societies are preparing to support the civic welcome to the officers by banquets and receptions.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

The Times freely publishes the views of correspondents without holding itself responsible for their opinions. We brief, write plainly, and fairly. The editor's pen is on the line, and is sufficient for the point. Well-written letters are liable to be declined merely on account of their length.

Telephone Queries.
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—[To the editor of The Times.] An interest in telephone rates, may I ask a question or two?

Are users of telephone lines expected to pay interest on the many thousands of dollars expended by the companies in trying experiments and blunders such as the Home company made a few years ago on Hill street, where they laid, dug up and re-laid their pipes for underground lines in cement conduits three times?

Are we to pay such bills in addition to the aqua pura incorporated in their cost?

A business in which a man can draw interest on his errors and losses is not a gold mine.

Second. In estimating their running expenses, are the phone companies to be as their standard and basis for the charges the amount expended on them in the booming years of 1906 and 1907, when outside of the cost of equipment there must necessarily have been a large increase for office and outside forces on account of the expense of equipment and constant movement of their field of operations requiring readjustment of their lines.

Third: Does the city guarantee the second telephone company as many more as choose to enter the field shall make big money out of investment, when one company could give us better service at much less expense and trouble?

It may be that these points have all been brought out in the discussion in Council, but they have not appeared in any paper that I have seen.

NOT GUILTY OF CONTEMPT.

Wellsborn Declines to Imprison
Bankrupts for Failing to Surrender.

What They Haven't.
Judge Wellsborn of the United States district court, yesterday delivered an opinion in the Desser & Liffand bankrupt case, in which he declined to imprison the defendant's guilty of contempt.

The man has been hanging on for months like six months, and grew out of the firm of Desser & Liffand the city. They were accused of something like $3000 of their assets in order to defraud their creditors and the referee in bankruptcy demanded upon them for the failing to respond, the referee did them to appear and show why they should not be held in contempt of court, and this proceeding disposed of yes-

Wellsborn said in his opinion that he is satisfied from the evidence that in the case, that the defendants did have the money, and it would be to put them in jail for not showing that which they do not have. The settlement of the bankrupt will rest in the hands of the referee, Lynn Helm.

Charming New Undermuslins

There's an exceedingly attractive Broadway window display of seasonable undergarments for women—flannel, outing flannel and muslin.
Discriminating women will note particularly the daintily embroidered outing flannel gowns—with wild rose designs in pink or blue silk.

Part and all wool flannel skirts, delicately embroidered, come in for a share of admiration; $2.50 to $6.

A distinct novelty, and a very handsome one, is shown in silk slips or corset covers, to be worn under summer shirt waists. Silk wears beautifully in such garments, and is vastly prettier than muslin, as well. A full line of Italian silk vests is also displayed; so woven that they will outwear the ordinary silk vest.

Combination undergarments are prime favorites with all women who once wear them.
We show the products of five different houses, which means variety unexcelled hereabouts.
De Boeise, La Grecque Tailored, Royal and other brands are here, in two and three-piece combinations.

And of course there is a profusion of separate muslin garments of all good sorts; most of them very inexpensive, too.

RELIGIOUS.
ROMANCE OF MISSIONARIES.

First Whites in the Province of Hinghua.

Founder of Brotherhood of St. Andrew Here.

Two Mass Meetings Sunday Afternoon.

A little more than seventeen years ago, Rev. William N. Brewster of Cincinnati went to India as a missionary of the Methodist church. At Singapor he suddenly discovered a sliver of land running across the China Sea to Foochow, and he was not long in following the lead.

Several years before that time he had met at his old home, a young lady missionary, who had gone out to Foochow from London, Ohio, and who was then at home on a furlough. She was again back in the field of her labors when Dr. Brewster reached India.

He sounded the sliver of land, found the tone responsive, and seventeen years ago he went to Foochow and made the missionary his wife. Immediately after the happy couple were transferred to the Province of Hinghua, being the first white people ever seen in that province, and have remained there ever since, except when absent on several brief visits to their friends in this country.

On their recent visit they are accompanied by two of their children, and will be the guests of Mrs. F. M. Buck on Sunday afternoon, an aunt of Mrs. Brewster. They have two other children attending school in this country, and still three others in a boarding-school at Foochow.

After a brief visit to this city, they will go to their friends in Ohio, and from there to the general conference, which meets in Baltimore in March, both being official delegates to that body.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Brewster are regarded as the most successful missionaries in the foreign field, and both will be heard in this city tomorrow. Dr. Brewster will preach in the Boyle Heights Methodist Church in the morning, and will also address the Sunday-school of the same church, before the preaching hour. Mrs. Brewster will address the University Methodist Sunday-school in the morning. It is probable that many other engagements will be made for them during their stay here.

PROMINENT CHURCHMAN.
FATHER OF BROTHERHOOD.

James L. Houghteling, a Chicago financier, will deliver an address at a special meeting for men, to be held at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral.

Twenty-four years ago, while discussing the life of the Apostle St. Andrew, in a men's Bible class at St. James's Episcopal Church, Chicago, Mr. Houghteling suggested the formation of a society of laymen who would endeavor to follow the example of this, the first Apostle of Jesus Christ. From that suggestion sprang the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which, with its large membership, is now an important factor in the work of the Episcopal church in this city.

The success of the brotherhood is largely due to the efficient and untiring efforts of Mr. Houghteling, who is a strong and interesting speaker.

MISSION MASS MEETING.
ENLARGING HEADQUARTERS.

A mass meeting will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in Temple Auditorium, under the auspices of the Union Rescue Mission. The speaker will be Melvin E. Trotter of Grand Rapids, Mich., superintendent of the Rescue Mission in that city, who has been heard on former occasions in Los Angeles. He is a most interesting and picturesque speaker. Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, the blind vocalists, will sing.

The headquarters of the mission, at No. 145 North Main street, are being remodeled and enlarged, and no meetings will be held there for a week or two, but meantime they are centering their efforts upon the meetings at the other branch of the mission, located at No. 419 North Main street, where Mr. Trotter will speak Saturday night.

Y.M.C.A. MASS MEETING.
INTRODUCING AN EVANGELIST.

On Sunday afternoon at 2:30, a men's mass meeting will be held in the First Methodist Church, at which time an address will be delivered by Evangelist Morrison, who will assist Dr. Robert McIntyre in a series of revival meetings, beginning Sunday night. The meeting tomorrow afternoon will be under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association, and the male quartette, vested boys' choir and other musical attractions of the association will add to the interest of the meeting. A prayer meeting will be held at 7:30, and will be held at the association headquarters on Broadway, at 2:15, and under the leadership of the brass band, will hold two street meetings en route to the church. One of these will be held at Mercantile Place, and will be addressed by Charles H. Stanley of Baltimore, a converted comedian, who writes and sings his own songs. The second one will be held on the steps of the church.

RELIGIOUS BRIEVITIES.
WILL TALK OF GUATEMALA.

Miss Bond and Miss Zimmerman, missionaries from Guatemala, will talk of their labors in Central America, at the First Friends' Church on Sunday evening at 8:30. Their tales of the superstitions and customs of the people are most entertaining.

Melvin Trotter will speak in the Boyle Heights Methodist Church on Sunday evening.

The City Rescue Mission will be addressed on Sunday evening by D. W. Potter, a Chicago evangelist, and Capt. Stanley will sing.

Dr. Robert McIntyre will have charge of the "We Boys" class of the First Methodist Sunday-school, tomorrow morning, owing to the illness of Mrs. J. D. Birch, the regular teacher.

Miss Lucy Broad of England will speak on the subject of "The Christian in Different Lands," at the vespers meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

On Sunday afternoon Dr. Warren P. Day will assist in the first communion of the revived Congregational Church at Monrovia, and in the evening he will conduct a communion service at the Japanese branch of the First Congregational Church of this city.

The meeting at the Volunteers of America tonight will be led by Rev. C. H. Ferry, and Charles W. Unfiled will sing.

Rev. Robert J. Burdette will address

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Brewster, who will arrive here from the foreign mission field today and will tell of seventeen years spent in China.

The Baptist ministers in the First Baptist Church on Monday morning at 10:15. His subject will be "Some Features of a Popular Discourse."

At Temple Baptist Church on Sunday night, Dr. Burdette will preach on "The Hymnbook in the Knappe." The special musical service will be from the German hymn writers, during which many of the well-known hymns will be rendered, including Luther's "Ein feste Burg." The choir will also sing "Die Wacht am Rhein."

The usual gospel temperance meeting will be held in Blanchard Hall on Sunday evening, addressed by William Murphy. There will be a violin solo by A. W. Albers, and a baritone solo by Francis Murphy, Jr. A meeting will also be held at Chutes Park in the afternoon.

The Jewish Sisterhood of Los Angeles

TO CITRUS GROWERS.

is looked for during the next two months.

GOLDEN RETURNS.

After that which comes the Valencia crop and the bulk of the lemons, and then the hope is that the net returns of the growers will average close to $2 a box. If such should be the case, it will raise the average for the entire crop to something like $10,000,000 in gross returns to the growers and shippers of Southern California, and the railroads will share bountifully.

And most of this money will circulate in Southern California.

One of the new things which the shippers and packers believe has come to stay is that of precooling the fruit before shipping it in the refrigerator cars. Manager Woodford states that it is really an experiment as yet, but one which has apparently proved its worth.

The principle is the same as for preserving the oranges after they have been placed in the cars, he says. The sooner the fruit is cooled after it is picked the less likely is there to be any decay, and the better chance there will be of reaching its destination in good condition.

This preventative of decay cuts out a double loss, that for the fruit itself and for the freight which has to be paid upon ruined fruit just the same upon the fancy kind which brings high prices.

Golden as are the returns for the navel orange crop at present, the shippers look forward to still higher returns from the Valencia crop next summer. This delicious orange comes into the market just at that time when the demand for such fruit is at its highest, and high-grade fruit of this brand often brings as high as from $5 to $7 a box. Last year there was a shortage of Valencia fruit, and this price, but this was phenomenal and is not expected this season.

NET PROFITS.

Yet with the total net profits from the Valencia and late lemon crops and from the navel oranges, the net returns to the growers of Southern California this season will be not far from $20,000,000, possibly a little more or a little less.

The demand for good orange orchards has kept up all through the recent financial depression. Some people might not have very much cash in hand, but the owners of orange orchards have generally refused to be tempted with offers of cash to reduce the price at which they hold their orchards, and there have been more buyers than sellers.

But those who just as good orange land in Southern California today, which can be purchased at a reasonable price as ever, and with the development of this land will become available for some of the finest orchards which will be found in the State when given time to grow.

From every source the future of the orange industry in Southern California is asserted to be more promising than ever, with profits accruing to the intelligent ranchman which would have staggered the imagination of the pioneers in this legacy of the Mission Fathers.

AUTOMOBILISTS AT FUNERAL.
Many Gather for Last Tribute to Leading Member of Association.

Many members of the Automobile Dealers' Association of Southern California attended the funeral yesterday of Linford C. Lull, vice-president and general manager of the Auto Vehicle company, who died suddenly in Detroit a week ago. The service was held in the Breese chapel, and was conducted by Rev. Robert J. Burdette, his pastor in life.

The casket was covered with flowers, the handsome piece being a design of a broken automobile wheel in the center, surrounded by a wreath of flowers, and a number of other beautiful pieces, the gifts of sympathizing friends, formed a bank of flowers around the remains.

Motorists and those who had been associated with Mr. Lull in the business world, the employees of the Auto Vehicle company, members of the Motorists' association and the Elks, and others followed the remains to the crematory at Rosedale. In the funeral cortege was a long line of automobiles.

Directors of the Auto Vehicle company passed resolutions of respect for their deceased associate, and of sympathy for the bereaved family, at a meeting yesterday.

SWELLING.
OUR LEMONS
WHOLE THING.

Boston Auctioneer of Fruit
Says They Will Be.

Sells Oranges Thirty Years,
Sees First Grove.

Notes Great Improvements in Handling of Crops.

"California lemons eventually may be the only variety sold in the eastern markets," declared Frank Moseley of Boston, probably the greatest auctioneer of fruit in the world, who is at the Alexandria with Mrs. Moseley. "They keep well and are preferred by most buyers. I do not wish to hurt the feelings of our friends in Sicily, for we still handle many lemons and limes from there, but the demand shows which way the wind blows."

As he sold $2,000,000 worth of citrus fruits last year, and grew up in the business from the time when practically none was sold, Mr. Moseley certainly speaks by the card.

"Last year," he said, "undoubtedly was the best year we ever had in the citrus fruit business. Some of the shipments this year have been even heavier, and the report of sales for the year will compare favorably with former years. I do not have statistics to show, but our sales agent, Mr. Burton, says the sales will be larger this year than last. California fruit is in excellent condition this year. The oranges are well colored and advanced, and lemons better than in previous years."

"The industrial conditions have a strong bearing on the fruit market. If workers have to economize, they will cut down the expenditure for fruit. But when we left Boston conditions were looking up considerably. Every one was looking forward to better conditions this spring, and we anticipate heavy sales."

HANDLING OUR FRUIT.

Mr. Moseley, speaking of the auction system, said that in his houses the loads of California fruits are unloaded and assorted by boxes, the several grades being piled separately. Clerks daily go over the arrival list, making a catalogue. The perfect fruit is inspected and carefully assorted and placed on the second floor. The big fruit dealers have their quotations and make their purchases, the auctioneers keeping record of the sales. The fruit is inspected and carefully assorted and placed on the second floor. The big fruit dealers have their quotations and make their purchases, the auctioneers keeping record of the sales.

By the way, in looking over catalogues and papers a few days before Mrs. Moseley and I started for California," he said, "I came across a catalogue of the first shipment of California fruit ever sent East. The list included lemons, mostly plump, round and peaches, and the date I believe was July, 1887. At that time the facilities for shipping fruits from California were not adequate. The auction system of distribution was used."

"Mrs. Moseley and I stopped a few days in the Grand Canyon, then came on to Riverside for a few days. We visited the groves and were shown every courtesy. It may sound strange, but I've been handling oranges and lemons for the last thirty years and not until this visit have I seen the fruit growing, picked oranges and lemons surrounded by the light of the sun, and the fruit in this time is well colored and finely flavored."

Speaking of the manner of handling, the cleaning process and packing, Mr. Moseley said:

"It seems to me the packing-houses are improving every year in their cleanliness, but when I was in California, I saw the better ones. They keep better and are in better condition when they reach us at Boston. Mr. Powell, pomologist for the government, says the larger dealers in California citrus fruits. The attention paid to the shipping, refrigeration and inspection has made thousands of dollars for the citrus-fruit growers."

"I understand lemons are about 10 per cent. of the citrus product of California, whereas the demand for lemons, more lemons must necessarily be grown. The cold weather in the East affects the business materially. With the larger dealers here in California, with push carts in Boston, and when the pavements are icy and snow-covered they do not do any business to speak of. The larger dealers are in better shape than to handle the trade."

Mr. Moseley talked almost entirely of the California interests in the eastern distribution. His house deals in imported fruits to a certain extent, and handles Florida and Jamaica products. He has so many Italians and Greeks, expects more of California than of any other fruit-growing district. It is the distributor for the California Fruit Exchange, the California Citrus Union, and many other shippers.

HISTORIC PLAYHOUSE TO GO.
Madison Square Theater to Be Demolished, the Work to Begin This Evening.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.] NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Tomorrow evening will see the closing for good and all of the Madison Square Theater, as this historic playhouse is to be torn down preparatory to the erection of a new building on its site.

It was hoped that the process of demolition might be delayed until spring, inasmuch as the theater stands on a solid bed of rock, the architects have decided to have the work of excavation for the new structure begun sooner than was originally anticipated.

A Senator's Wife's Opinion.

Mrs. Julius Burrows, wife of the Senator from Michigan, says: "It appears to me a rank injustice that women are not allowed their voice in the making of the laws, or at least not given the opportunity to say what they think of the laws. They are amenable to them, just as man. The fact that they are women does not exempt them from any of the legal penalties when they are guilty. I think that while they are kept outside their rights there will be a lack of balance in the legislation which relates to certain conditions of which women are by God and nature the best and only judges."

CONFERENCE OF COAL MEN.
INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 28.—At the joint meeting of coal miners and operators of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois today, a motion by H. L. Chapman, one of the operators, for providing for an extension of the present wage scale from April 1 to April 30 was defeated, as was also a motion to adjourn until March 10.

National Secretary Wilson of the miners said he would not consent to this unless a settlement was pending. There were practically no prospects of a settlement.
